GENERAL MANAGER

ADAM MORGAN

Adam Morgan is most likely a senior at Central. Although no one, not even Adam, knows for sure. Adam does not enjoy long walks on the beach because he despises sand. He also does not like Pina Coladas at all. Adam however is not above enjoying getting caught in the rain. That is just peachy by him.

Adam is a marketing major. He has been part of the radio station since fall of 2002 and has been general manager since the spring of 2005. His favorite bands are R.E.M., Piebald, and Beulah in that order, although oddly enough he is an Urban DJ doing a hip hop show Tuesday nights 6-8pm. On the show he calls himself the "Mad Milliner", please don't make fun of him about it, he is very sensitive.

Little Known Fact: Fuck You, Adam's Edge.

DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

MIKE MCDONALD

A senior here at CCSU, Mike has done his fair share of bitching and moaning. He has been a member of WFCS since December 2004 and began his reign of terror as Director of Development in June of 2005. Mike has also been the Concert Chair for CAN since January of 2005. Being involved with these clubs has help him grow to what he is today; a bitter, grouchy old man at the age of 21. Mike also books shows outside of school through Manic Productions and works at Subway. He also plays in some bands he doesn't like.

Little known fact: Mike thinks your band sucks.

REBECCA BARRIEAU

PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Birthplace: edge of a nuclear blast site whose location is still classified.

Bio: "I used to believe in things like being the first female president. These days I believe in people with eight arms. I've endured things only giants can endure. Everyday I go up to the border and take that shot and they bomb the shit out of us all day. The point is that I keep shooting."

Little known fact: over ½ of the e-board has at one time or another been in love with Becca.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

MATT "IRON FIST" ROCKWELL

Matt was the son of wealthy American businessman Wendell Rand, an entrepreneur who had appeared out of nowhere with a large sum of money and over the course of ten years built up Rand-Meachum Incorporated with his business partner Harold Meachum. His mother Heather Duncan Rand had been a New York society belle before she met and married Matt's father. Wendell was obsessed with finding the mystical city of K'un L'un, high on the mountain of the same name which according to legend was the dwelling place of the immortals of China. When Matt was 9, Wendell organized an expedition to seek K'un L'un, taking Heather and their son, with Harold Meachum also following.

Matt's mother and father were both killed by Meachum on the journy to K'un L'un. Archers were sent from the city to look for the grieving Matt, to take him to see Yü-Ti, the hooded August Personage of Jade who ruled K'un L'un. When Matt expressed his desire for vengeance (over victory), Yü-Ti apprenticed him to Lei Kung, the Thunderer, who taught him the martial arts.

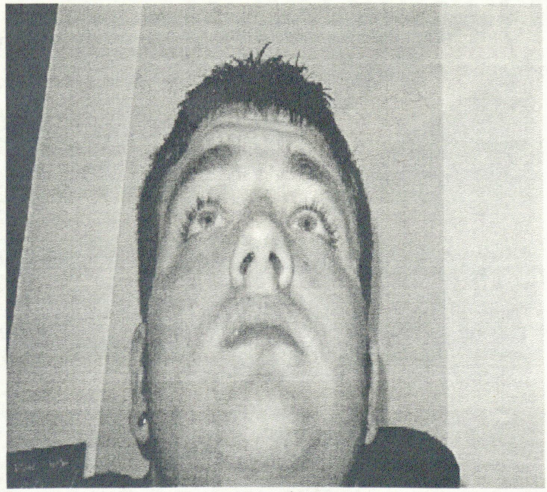
Matt proved to be the most gifted of Lei Kung's students, attaining the Crown of Fu-Hsi. At 19, Matt was given the chance to attain the power of the Iron Fist by fighting and defeating the dragon known as Shou-Lao the Undying. During the battle, Matt threw himself against the scar of Shou-Lao, which burned a dragon tattoo into his chest. Having killed Shou-Lao, he entered its cave and plunged his fists into a brazier which contained the creature's molten heart, emerging with the power of the Iron Fist.

LISA TON

I read the New York Times at starkbucks and listen to National Public Radio when napping in a Jeep, I drink iced tea, I serve fish and steak at a mystic restaurant. I have awesome friends. I go out on pretentious dates. I enjoy the color pink.

Little known fact: Lisa is Asian.

CO-TRAINING DIRECTOR



TRAVIS "THE DUDE" DUDA

Travis is a single, unemployed slacker who enjoys cannabis and spends his days "bowling, driving around, [and having] the occasional acid flashback." A devoted Creedence Clearwater Revival fan, he actively hates The Eagles. He freely uses profanity and is not above postdating a check for $0.69 to buy a carton of half and half for his favorite drink, White Russian cocktails. He claims to be one of the members of the "Seattle Seven" and a former roadie for Metallica during the "Speed of Sound" tour, though he isn't very fond of the band members (he refers to them as a "bunch of assholes"). The Dude is a laid-back pacifist who gets caught up in a scheme of kidnapping and embezzlement after seeking reparations for his beloved rug — one that "really tied the room together" — after it was peed on.

ALTERNATIVE DIRECTOR

LINDSAY GOLDFINGER

Lindsay Goldfinger (yes, that's her real last name) grew up in Branford, CT. She trained as a singer and musician until the age of 15, when she realized she had no talent in either field. The daughter of a musician who toured with such acts as Charo and Xavier Cugat, Lindsay switched her focus to radio and joined the WFCS family as a DJ in 2004. This is her first year as Alternative Music Director. She is an English major and avid equestrian.

Little known fact: She is related to Phish frontman Trey Astacio but hates Phish.

METAL DIRECTOR

IAN "BLACK METAL" RUBITZ

Not much is known about Ian "Black Metal" Rubitz. He is hairier than the average man. He has his girlfriend's name tattooed on his arm. He eats hot pockets and he likes Fear Factory a whole lot.

Little known fact: Ian and general manager Adam Morgan were best friends in elementary school.

URBAN DIRECTOR

HERSH VAKHARIA

Hersh's Myspace bio simply says "Producing Tracks Is In My Blood Like John Henry". He is known as "DJ Dyslexic" and does a show Tuesday 4-6pm. Hersh enjoys women and music and any combination of the two. Hersh is known as the member of WFCS most likely to be "crunked".

His favorite quote is "Whatever Goes Around, Comes Around/Every Lifetime Is A Lesson, This Is What I've Found/No Matter Who You Are, Gonna Have Your Ups And Downs/Whatever Goes Around, Comes Around"

- Jerry Butler "Whatever Goes Around"

Little known fact: Hersh likes Chocolate Cosmopolitans.

PAUL BLAHA

DIVERSITY DIRECTOR

Paul has been with WFCS since 2002, and has been the Diversity Music Director since 2003. He is a Senior pursuing a Communications major with an emphasis in Broadcasting, and is carrying two minors - a Music minor and a Creative Writing minor. Paul is a fan of Red Sox baseball and enjoys a good hand of poker every now and again.

He is a Taurus and enjoys long walks on the beach and talking about his extravagant hair. You'll be able to notice Paul because he's the only student at CCSU that wears green flannel. He plans to smite all his enemies and steal their money before buying a small island off the coast of Madagascar to start his "genetic experiments."

DOM FORCELLA

Dom Forcella is a blues columnist writing a weekly column dedicated to the Blues. It is the only column of its kind in a commercial (paid subscription) newspaper. The column appears in entertainment section of four daily papers: the evening papers, The Herald of New Britain, Bristol Press, Middletown Press, and Torrington Register-Citizen. All are mid-sized cities in the State. These papers cover local towns, about half the state's towns.

In addition, Dom also has the opportunity to do special features on blues events in the Sunday Herald Press (Combined New Britain, Bristol, and Middletown parers.) Space permitting, the column may appear in the Post weekly papers. There are four Post editions covering six towns in the Farmington Valley. These get sent to individual homes and are available free in area businesses.

He does a weekly blues radio show (Thursdays 10am-Noon). He, also, serves as the station's Blues Director.

He appears periodically on Sunday Night Blues with Beef Stew, one of the Region's highest rated radio shows. WCCC is a 50,000 watts commercial station.

Presently, Dom servers on the Board of Directors Blues Foundation, Memphis, TN. representing the Journalism constituency, the Board of Directors Connecticut Blues Society, the Past Editor State of the Blues, Connecticut Blues Society newsletter, the Past President Connecticut Blues Society, and the Keeping the Blues Alive award for Journalism from Blues Foundation

His photography is often accompany his blues column. His writings and photos of his blues travels appear on Megablues.com hosted by Beef Stew. Two of his photos are in the recently released CD "Mississippi Soul" by Slick Ballinger on Oh! Boy Records and his photos appeared in local press to promote and in summary of the Robert Johnson Foundation Blues festival. His photos appear on a number of websites, as publicity photos and in some homes.

He is also, a past member of the D.C. Blues Society and the Las Vegas Blues Society.
